Facilities

- Cwrt Mytton is a Social Services EMI residential care home for older people, some with dementia.
- The building was designed to make life pleasant and convenient for residents and their visitors. Accommodation is on 2 floors serviced by a lift.
- The home is located off Alma Street, close to the town centre.
- There are 35 rooms. These consist of single rooms with en suite facilities or vanity units, and adjacent toilet facilities.
- Each suite of rooms has its own bathroom, which has been adapted to meet a range of physical needs, providing safety, privacy and comfort. There are also additional toilets in each area, sitting rooms and fitted serveries where you can make your own snacks and hot drinks.
- The communal sitting rooms, dining room, kitchen, hairdressing room and laundry are situated in the central area of the Home.
- All rooms are fitted with a call/alarm system.
- A visitor's lounge is available with tea/coffee making facilities.

Social Services

Staff

- There is a team of officers (including a clerical officer), care assistants, domestic assistants, laundry and cooks.
- Staff are given training for tasks they perform and have further training opportunities to develop their skills.
- The staff are regularly supervised on a one to one basis.
- There is a large committed staff group/with 4 senior officers. During the day there is a member of staff on duty in each area of the home with 4 members of staff on duty for the Home throughout the night.

Services

- Long term care: 35 places available.
- Short term care: 2 places available.
- Staff offer help with all personal care, bathing, washing, shaving and dressing.
- A laundry service is provided and staff will also undertake sewing or mending.

Medical Care

- You can continue to use the services of your doctor (General Practitioner) if they are able to provide a service to you. (You may have moved out of their area).
- Nurses working in the community and specialist consultants can visit the home, if the need arises.

Religious Worship

There is an input from the Council of Churches who provide a rota to ensure Cwrt Mytton and its residents are offered the choice of worship within their chosen Christian denomination. There are also regular visits from members of the Catholic Church and Church in Wales to offer Communion. Should the need arise, contact will be made with other faith leaders to ensure that the appropriate individual religious observances are catered for.

Meals & Other Services

- These are flexible with a choice of menu and special diets and preferences catered for. Meals can be served in the dining room or in your bedroom if preferred.
- Other services include a public telephone and a twice weekly visit from a hairdresser whose charges are very reasonable.
- Staff can support with visits to hospitals, chiropodists, dentists etc, if necessary.
- The home is run democratically so that everyone contributes and shares in any decision making.

Charges

They are set according to a nationally agreed formula.
