This map showing public rights of way in BGCBC areas outside the BBNP is made available to assist the public until the current Definitive map and Statement are formally replaced. This map has no legal authority: The Definitive map and Statement together with the combined orders which alter these, remain the legal sources of up to date information. Definitive Maps are, however, acknowledged to be a 'minimum record' only and the law recognises that many rights of way will exist but will be unrecorded.
